

Vivre Musicale is a non-profit chamber music society that seeks to provide young up and coming musicians a strong foot hold in the classical music world through the diversification of concerts, genres, and the melding together of various art forms that further enhance the concert going experience.

Season

Evolving Landscapes represents the kind of change that is currently taking place in our present world. It embodies the evolution we see culturally, politically, personally, and artistically. Our inaugural season marks the start of a breathtaking journey of new discovery united with unparalleled change while paying respect to the past.

Evolving Landscapes is a season long musical tribute to our dear friend and artistic colleague, Armando Perez-Segura, whom recently lost his life in a motorcycle accident. Evolution, through its unpredictability and intrinsic inevitability brings joy, pain, love, and sorrow; all of which are testaments to a life well lived. We honor Armando's memory for he was vital, vibrant, and vividly vivacious, personifying the totality of Vivre Musicale. In this season we will ensure that the music lives and through it, the memory of a gifted musician and benevolent friend. Celebrate with us a life well-lived and a continually evolving musical landscape!

Program

Our debut concert will feature a patch-work quilt of pieces beginning with a tranquil unaccompanied solo for viola by young composer Martin Blessinger entitled Soliloquy; Zachary Wadsworth's triumphant and daring For nothing less than thee is performed by tenor, clarinet, and piano; which is followed by selections from Robert Schumann's beautiful and poetic, Dichterliebe. Don't miss Ralph Vaughan-Williams' hot and cold Ten Blake Songs for tenor and oboe. We conclude our musical tribute with selections from Max Bruch's evocative 8 pieces for viola, clarinet, and piano.
